

April 2017

Left to Right: Jodie Spittles, Practice Manager - Oncology, Tim Williams - Nursing Unit Manager - Oncology, Florian Honeyball, Oncologist and Sue Moreton, Haematologist recently visited the Albury Wodonga Regional Cancer Centre to help inform staff as part of the early planning phase of Dubbo's Integrated Care Centre.

Construction is underway again at Dubbo Hospital. The first phase of construction is focused on building a second floor on top of the clinical services building for a new In-patient Unit. Meanwhile, project user groups continue to determine the detailed design of the new building.

Local Member for Dubbo, Troy Grant recently visited Dubbo Hospital to meet builder, Hansen Yuncken, and celebrate the start of construction for the $150 million Dubbo Hospital Redevelopment Stages 3 and 4. Left to right: Henry Lau, Senior Project Director, Health Infrastructure, Debbie Bickerton, Dubbo Hospital General Manager and Troy Grant check out the clinical services building roof which will be the focus for construction in 2017.

Project In Pictures

A bird's eye-view of the clinical services building's roof which will be carefully removed - section by section - to construct the In-patient Unit.

The NSW Government has committed $150 million to deliver Stages 3 and 4 of the Dubbo Hospital Redevelopment which includes a new Inpatient Unit, Emergency Department, Imaging Unit, Critical Care floor, Renal Unit (originally part of Stages 1 and 2 works) and Ambulatory Care Unit as well as new Ambulance bay, main entry and drop off zone.